Inequalities show the relationship between two expressions that may or may not be equal and may have more than one solution or no solution. Inequalities use one of the following symbols:

- \> (greater than)
- < (less than)
- ≥ (greater than or equal)
- ≤ (less than or equal)
- ≠ (not equal)